Another Daytona 500 Win On Bosch

Ryan Newman takes 50th Daytona 500 for Penske.

Ryan Newman paced a one-two sweep by Penske Racing when he drove his Bosch spark plug-equipped Alltel Dodge Charger to victory at the 50th running of the Daytona 500 to open the '08 NASCAR Sprint Cup season.

Newman won with his teammate Kurt Busch on his rear bumper for a Penske sweep at Daytona International Speedway. It was also the first 500 win for veteran Bosch team owner Roger Penske after nearly 30 years of trying.

Bosch once again dominated the race by sparking 9 of the first 10 finishers. Dodge took six of the first eight spots while Joe Gibbs Racing Toyota entries finished third and fourth also on Bosch.

Dale Earnhardt, Jr. In Two-Race Wins.

Dale Earnhardt, Jr. won his first race for his new team, Hendrick Motorsports, in the Budweiser Shootout at Daytona International Speedway. He then drove his Chevrolet on Bosch to a Sprint Cup qualifying race win going two-for-two as NASCAR opened the 2008 season.

Roger Penske, a veteran Bosch team owner, joined his driver Ryan Newman after he won the 50th running of the NASCAR Sprint Cup season-opening Daytona 500.

Daytona 24-Hr. Sweep

Bosch continued our domination of American road racing by sweeping the the 41st annual Rolex 24 At Daytona to open the 2008 American racing season.

Chip Ganassi Racing captured their record-tying third consecutive overall victory at this endurance classic event. Scott Pruett, Juan Montoya, Dario Franchitti and Memo Rojas shared the ride in a Bosch-equipped Riley-Lexus.

The Grand Touring Class win went to the SpeedSource Mazda RX-8 on Bosch.

This Bosch-equipped Target Chip Ganassi Racing Riley-Lexus prototype won their third straight Grand-Am Rolex 24 At Daytona to open the 2008 racing season.

More Early Season Wins On Bosch

Tony Stewart drove this Bosch-sparked Joe Gibbs Racing Toyota to victory in the Nationwide Series at Daytona.

The first NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series win of '08 went to Todd Bodine driving this Toyota Tundra pickup on Bosch.
